

"I am grateful to have received the TSRA's ATEs scholarship while completing my Bachelor of Nursing Science - Bachelor of Midwifery through the James Cook University's Townsville Campus. The scholarship really helped me with meeting the costs of attending clinical placements away from home."

— Anita Nakata (Graduate, Bachelor of Nursing Science - Bachelor of Midwifery)

Planning to Study at University?

The TSRA is offering one-year Scholarships, each valued at $6,000*

"I am honoured and grateful to have been awarded a TSRA ATEs Scholarship to assist with the completion of my business degree at James Cook University in Cairns. The Scholarship covered some of the costs associated with moving to Cairns to continue my degree and helped me make a smooth transition into full-time study".

—Carrita Assan (Current student, Bachelor of Business)

What's on Offer

The TSRA is offering Assistance with Tertiary Education Scheme (ATES) Scholarships to support Torres Strait Islander and Aboriginal people (of any age) to undertake study for their first undergraduate qualification at a tertiary institution, by providing financial assistance towards living and study-related expenses.
